

KING ALFRED'S ACADEMY
OPPORTUNITY FOR ALL

OPEN EVENING 2026

RESPONSIBILITY

Take responsibility for our behaviour, our words and our actions

TOLERANCE

Show understanding and acceptance of those who are different, and appreciate the uniqueness of all human beings

RESPECT

Show respect for ourselves, each other, our school and our community

KNOWLEDGE

Embrace a desire to learn all that we can about ourselves and our world, by seeking out new ideas, experiences and viewpoints

CURIOSITY

Appreciate that knowledge empowers everybody to lead a successful, independent and fulfilling life

RESILIENCE

Develop the resilience to respond successfully to challenge and learn from failure

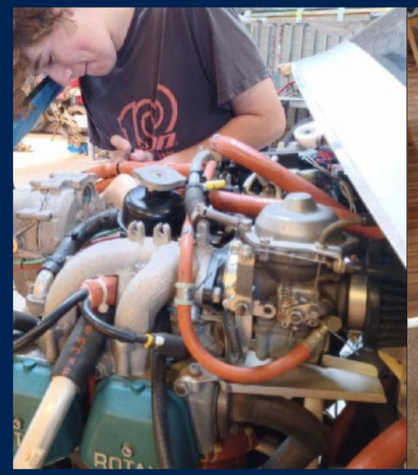

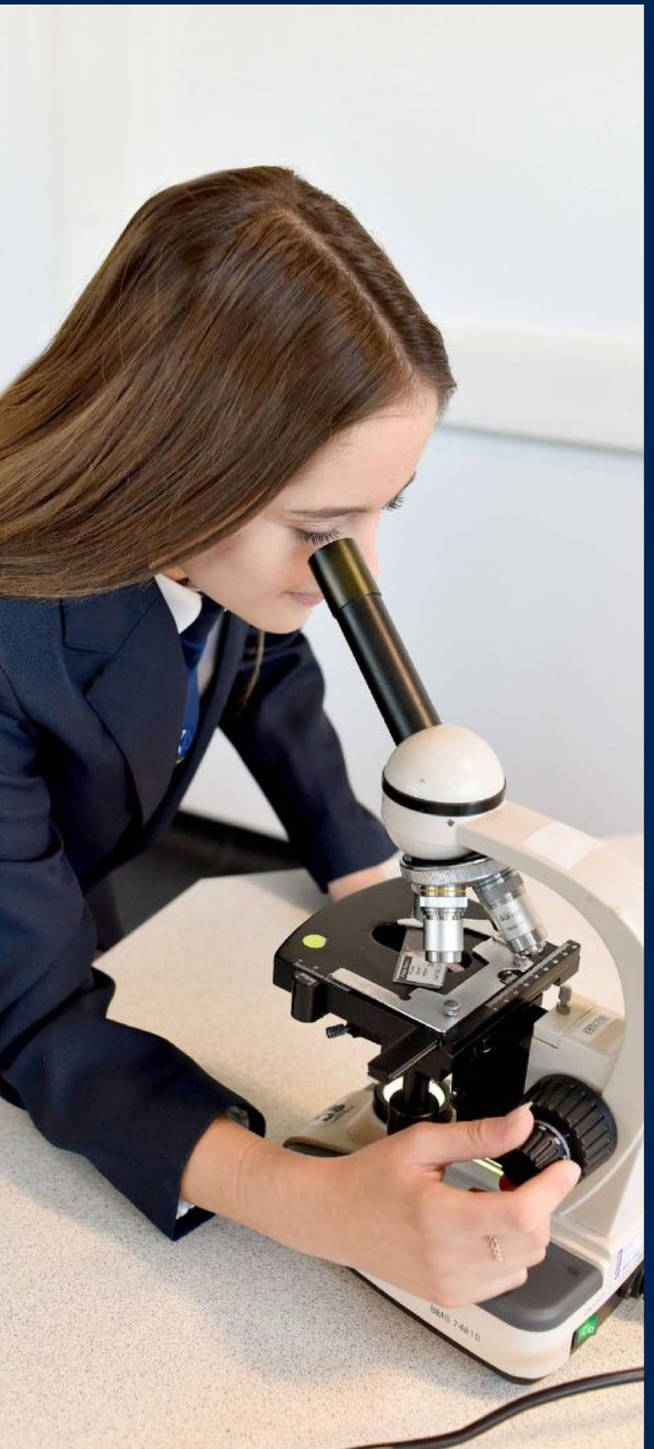

At King Alfred's Academy our core mission is to provide 'opportunity for all'. In doing so, we will strive to ensure that each and every individual can grow and thrive through a wide range of new experiences, achieve their personal best and progress through the academy feeling happy, safe and fulfilled. We offer a rich, inclusive and accessible curriculum experience, both in and out of the classroom, which promotes our core principles and supports students to become responsible, respectful, curious & knowledgeable and resilient.

The comprehensive and inclusive nature of these opportunities is quite unique to King Alfred's and includes: Student Leadership responsibilities; a Character Development programme; an electives programme; a wide range of trips and visits across the UK and abroad; the Duke of Edinburgh Award; an academic enrichment programme; sporting fixtures; creative and visual arts productions and exhibitions; community service; work experience; mentoring and peer support programmes; as well as many other opportunities to specialise in specific areas of interest. At King Alfred's, there really is an opportunity for everybody to find their place, their passion and their own success.
